2018 Hutchinson Sculpture Stroll

Call for entries for Hutchinson's Sixth Annual Public Art Exposition. The Hutchinson Public Arts Commission has created a sculpture stroll that provides highly visible display locations for seven original pieces of temporary outdoor art each year. The temporary pieces are complemented by the city's growing collection of permanent art. This year's exhibit will be shown from May 2018 to May 2019.

- All artists selected to exhibit will receive a $1000 honorarium.
- A People's Choice award will be awarded again this year. Winner of the People's Choice will receive a $500 prize.
- The pieces will be available for sale or lease if the artist so chooses.
 - The City of Hutchinson has added to its permanent collection from pieces exhibited.
 - Note that City of Hutchinson will retain a 25% commission on any sculptures sold.

Hutchinson is a community of 14,000 located 60 miles west of the Twin Cities with a lot of exciting new development taking place. As a regional center Hutchinson boasts a diverse economy that includes agriculture, world class manufacturers, national retailers, vibrant downtown, technical college and a regional health care system. Hutchinson is known for its natural beauty highlighted by the South Fork of the Crow River/Otter Lake, which is bordered by a network of beautiful city parks and the paved Luce Line State Trail. Hutchinson has a variety of art organizations, cultural activities and festivals that cater to a broad range of interests for residents and visitors alike. As our Chamber of Commerce likes to say "There is Much in Hutch". Sculptures will be exhibited at destination locations downtown and along the Luce Line Trail. We hope you will consider entering your art in the 2018 Hutchinson Sculpture Stroll!
